Studies in Natural Language Processing

Executive Editor: Aravind K. Joshi

This series publishes monographs, texts, and edited volumes within the interdisciplinary field of computational linguistics. Sponsored by the Association for Computational Linguistics, the series will represent the range of topics of concern to the scholars working in this increasingly important field, whether their background is in formal linguistics, psycholinguistics, cognitive psychology, or artificial intelligence.

Also in this series:

Natural language parsing, edited by David R. Dowty, Lauri Karttunen, and Arnold Zwicky

Text generation, by Kathleen R. McKeown

Planning English sentences, by Douglas E. Appelt

Language and spatial cognition, by Annette Herskovits

Computational linguistics, by Ralph Grishman

Machine translation, edited by Sergei Nirenburg

The linguistic basis of text generation, by Laurence Danlos
